About This Game

The sequel to the party game phenomenon The Jackbox Party Pack, featuring FIVE fresh, rib-tickling party games! Games include:

Fibbage 2 (2-8 players)

- The runaway hit bluffing game with over 500 brand-new questions, more than 2x the original! Plus new features, like the deFIBrillator!

Earwax (3-8 players)

- The hear-larious sound-effects game that will leave you up to your ears in laughter! Cow moo? Huge explosion? Or tiny fart? Which to choose?

Bidiots (3-6 players)

- The absurd art auction game where you draw right there on your phone or tablet. Outbid your opponents for weird art pieces – drawn by players themselves – and win this strangely competitive auction game! Don't be a bidiot!

Quiplash XL (3-8 players)

- The say-anything, gut-busting Quiplash XL, which includes everything in Quiplash, Quip Pack 1, AND over 100 brand-new prompts!

Bomb Corp. (1-4 players)

- The bomb-defusing nailbiter of a party game! As interns at Bomb Corp., you must defuse random bombs in the office in order to keep your jobs. You'll probably die, but it'll be good work experience!

Players play using their phones, tablets, or even computers as controllers – making it the perfect easy-to-join party starter. No extra controllers needed! And, spectators can join and affect some games by playing as Audience members!

NOTE: This game is local play, but can be enjoyed over streams with remote players.

NOTE: These games are in English only.

It's a game-night riot in a box... without the box!

1 out of all the games is bad IMO. 2 are great party fun for quicke laughs and 2 are games that aren't really straight forward. One will keep you on your toes and will make you die a lot, and I mean a lot. and the other is a kick back and relax bidding game that takes maybe half an hour a game. you might jiggle every now and then but not really something that will make you want to come back. So overall these two games don't really work in a party format.
